Voyage 298 September 18 - October 1, 2008

Emperor's Ballroom

Hamburg to Monte Carlo Highlights

From Hamburg, Germany, cruise to Amsterdam, Netherlands, where you'll enjoy a wonderful canal boat tour past the beautiful 16th & 17th century homes and visit one of the city's famed museums. In Antwerp, Belgium, the city of the world-famous 17th Century painter Rubens, you'll visit the largest cathedral in Belgium. The port city of Honfleur, France, awaits. Discover St. Catherine's Church with its stunning belfry, the picturesque harbor and the traditional half-timbered houses. After a relaxing day at sea, you'll arrive in Lorient, France. You'll travel to Carnac to visit the world's largest collection of prehistoric stone monuments. Enjoy another splendid day at sea before arriving in Lisbon, Portugal's charming capital city. Enjoy a stroll through the famous old town quarter and the magnificent view over the city from the towering statue of Christ. After a day at sea, you'll spend two days in glorious Valencia, Spain, famous for its Baroque and Gothic architecture. You'll visit the city hall, central market square and the "Lonja de la Seda" (silk exchange), a UNESCO World Heritage Site. MS Deutschland then arrives in Sète, France, a charming fishing town teeming with cafes and wonderful seafood restaurants. Your journey ends in fabulous Monte Carlo, Monaco.
